COLONIAL THEATRE.

Vitagraph Day Today With "The Drudge" Big Two Reel Feature.

One touch of nature is surely revealed in the powerful two reel Vitagraph feature at the Colonial today entitled "The Drudge." In it, pretty Dorothy Kelly the brilliant and vivacious little woman who is so popular in the big all star cast, appears as Anne Louise, the school mixtrees who Anna Louise, the schoolmistress who promises Dick Mason, that she will wed him after he has made good in the city. Dick's success comes slowly, and meantime, Anna through pique, marries Thurley Briggs, only to find that she has married the worst kind of a bully, and to make matters worse, in a year or two her old lover comes back to find her. He is wealthy from his success and shrewd living, and Anna falls into the love dreaming state again, and would have run away with her only true love, but for the tug of her little child at her skirt. Thhe hand of God intervenes—on a country foad—miles away, when fighting her hardest battle with herself and her

'The Old Oak's Secret," is another "The Old Oak's Secret, is another Vitagraph with George Cooper, and His Little Page, features Leo Delaney, Van Dyke Brooks, and Norma Talmadge, and other fine films complete a sterling programme. Do not forget, this is Vitagraph day. Matinee at 2.30, evening at 7 and 8.30.

A Universal special feature in four A Universal specil feature in four parts with King Baggot in the leading role will be seen here today and to-morrow at the usual hours and with the usual prices, 10c and 20c prevailing. The feature is entitled "Absinthe" and depicts in a vivid manner the evils of the dreadful Wormwood drug and is adopted from Marie Corellis' great book and play "Wormwood," The importation of this drug has been for-bidden by the United States governbidden by the United States govern-ment owing to its bad moral effects. The picture is a great moral lesson as well as a gripping photo drama and was produced by the imp company in France only a short time ago. Other pictures on today's bill will be Sheri-dan's Pride, a Joker comedy and the always popular Animated Weekly.

BULLETIN'S PATTERN SERVICE

A STYLISH, UP-TO-DATE COSTUME. Ladies' Costume With Chemisette and With or Without Tunic.

With or Without Tunic.

This model has several new and attractive style features. The gathered tunic, the long shoulder and waist shapings are all distinctive and pleasing. The design is good for a comornation of materials, or may be made of one material if preferred. As here shown, gray charmense was used, with blue serge. Satin, silk, velvet or cloth, linen and other wash materials are all suitable. The pattern is cut in six sizes: 23, 24, 26, 28, 49 and 42 inches, bust measure. It requires 7 yards of 44-inch material for a 26 inch size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 16 cents in silver or stamps.

THE PIPERS OF THE POOLS.

ipers of the chilly pools.
Pipe the April in,
ummon all the singing hosts,
And the wilding kin.

Through the cool and teeming damp Of the twilight air, Call till all the April children Answer everywhere.

From your cold and fluting throats
Pipe the world awake,
Pipe the mold to move again.
Pipe the sod to break.

Pipe the mating son of earth And the feedind fire— Love and laughter, pang and dream Desire, desire, desire.

Then a wonder shall appear.

Miracle of time;

Up through root and germ and services would be served.

Life shall climb and climb.

Then the hiding things shall hear you And the sleeping attr. And the far-off troops of exile Gather to confer.

Then the rain shall kies the bud, And the sun the hee; Fill they all, the painted children. Flower and wing get free.

And amid the shining grass

Ephemera arise, And the wind flowers in the hollow Open starry eyes. And delight comes in to whisper: "Soon, soon, soon.
Earth shall be but one wild bioseom
Breathing to the moon!"
—Charles G. D. Roberts.

ONCE UPON A TIME

The cost of living was quite low,
Once upon a time.
We used to save a little dough,
Once upon a time.
We can recall it didn't take
A dollar bill to buy a stes ik
We didn't spend all we could make,
Once upon a time.

The women all dressed sensibly.

Once upon a time.

They were as modest as could be.

They didn't wear the low-necked gown When walking on the street down fown And skirts so tight they couldn't sit down.

Once upon a time.

The people danced with ease and grace,
Once upon a time.
They didn't scramble round the place.
Once upon a time.
They danced in manner meant to please.
Not on their elbows and their knees.
They turned no handsprings in the breeze.
Once upon a time.

Hysteria was not a fad.

Once upon a time.
The folks were not sensation mad,
Once upon a time.
They were quite strong on sanity.
And it is very plain to see
Things are not what they used to be,
Once upon a time.
